OFFER No.: 10255/00
Springfield Ohio, 10/09/00

Dear Ashot,

We appreciate our discussion at the DNP 2000 conference and the kind interest in our products. Please find following the offer for the CAEN high voltage systems SY2527 for 600 channels PM tubes as discussed there. Compared to the CAEN systems used at hall C until now this new one has the advantage of build-in Ethernet interface and communication via TCP/IP. Please let me know if you are interested in technical details. For all the systems data sheets and manuals are available on the CAEN WEB server. CAEN will provide a complete control software support (TCP/IP based, C++ and Java classes, LabView application) for the new high voltage systems SY1527 and SY27. The total cost for the 600 channels would be $66,460 which corresponds to a price of about $106 per channel.
